OBITUARY

After an unnaturally long life lived at the peak of physical condition, Reach has been lost to us, slain in combat in the Rumali conflict zone. Some said Reach was "touched by the gods" and attuned to voices that others don't hear; able to senses the pain, distress, confusion, and mental damage in others. What can be said for sure is that Reach had a positive impact on people from hundreds of civilizations across the field of space. Gained fluency in many languages and as many dialects. Found peace in helping those in need. Some say Reach was an empath, a mind reader, a spirit reader, or able to see the future. These are unknown, but some things exist beyond explanation.
